v.

SOUTH UNIVERSITY OF OHIO, LLC, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 1:19-cv-145

Judge Dan Aaron Polster

Magistrate Judge Thomas M. Parker

DUNAGAN* INTERVENORS' MOTION TO WITHDRAW AS INTERVENORS

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 7(b), Emmanuel Dunagan, Jessica Muscari, Robert J. Infusino and Stephanie Porreca (the “Dunagan Intervenors”) move to withdraw as Intervenors in this case. The Dunagan Intervenors are four of six former students of the Illinois Institute of Art who are named class representatives in a proposed class action lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Dunagan et al. v. Illinois Institute of Art-Chicago, LLC, et al., Case No. 19-cv-809, alleging misrepresentations about their school’s accreditation. On February 13, 2019, the Court granted their motion to intervene under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 24(a). Dkt. 49.

On May 5, 2023, the Court ordered an in-person settlement conference requiring the participation of, among others, the Dunagan Intervenors, all defendants in the Dunagan case, and the defendants’ insurers. Dkt. 791. Pursuant to the Court’s directions that the Dunagan Intervenors attend the conference in person or dismiss their claims, Intervenors move to withdraw as Intervenor.¹ In light of developments since the conference was scheduled, the Dunagan Intervenor have concluded that participation in the settlement conference is not in their best interests or in the best interests of the class. None of the defendants or insurers have made an offer to resolve the case, much less one that is commensurate with the damages suffered by the class the Dunagan Intervenor seek to represent. Accordingly, the Dunagan Intervenor will focus their efforts on behalf of the class in the court in which their lawsuit is pending.

Courts allow intervenors to withdraw freely where withdrawal does not interfere with the proceedings. See, e.g., Morgan v. McDonough, 726 F.2d 11, 14 (1st Cir. 1984) (“[I]ntervention and withdrawal should be freely granted so long as it does not seriously interfere with the actual hearings.”) (quoting Dowell v. Bd. of Educ., 430 F.2d 865, 868 (10th Cir. 1970)). The Dunagan Intervenor’s withdrawal will not affect the proceedings. As noted above, none of them have filed a claim, as no claims process exists for them to do so. They are not participating in any active motions or disputes with the Receiver that require resolution. The Court has indicated on numerous occasions its intention to expeditiously bring the Receivership to a close.

For the foregoing reasons, the Dunagan Intervenor respectfully request that the Court enter an order in the form attached dismissing them as intervenors in this proceeding.²

Dated: June 11, 2023

Respectfully Submitted,
